

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

5 NOV 1970

The Honorable Richard G. Kleindienst
Deputy Attorney General
Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Mr. Kleindienst:

I have your letter of October 23, 1970, requesting that I make available for consultation to the United States Marshals Service members of my staff who have expertise in the field of personal security and experience in the operation of secure sites.

While we must be careful in this area, as we are under statutory injunction that the Agency shall have no police, subpoena, law-enforcement powers, or internal-security functions, I do not believe this need inhibit us from exchanging information growing out of experience or expertise which might be of use to the Department of Justice. In fact, for quite some time our General Counsel's office has been conducting such an exchange, on an informal basis, with various components of the Department of Justice. I, therefore, suggest that Mr. Hall and Mr. Kash get in touch with Mr. John S. Warner, our Deputy General Counsel, to consult and determine what assistance we can give in this regard.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms
